

0291 Center For
STRATEGIC AND INTERNATIONAL STUDIES

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

By Jack Anderson

Excerpted - ... A supposedly impartial $120,000 study of the controversial U.S. Information Agency will be conducted by Walter Roberts who, astonishingly, just resigned as associate director of the agency he will now investigate. He was chosen to investigate his own previous performance by the Center for Strategic and International Studies, which sees no conflict in the selection.
